Chapter 1 by Amanda Rainer

"Cello, guess where are we going to for summer break," Cello's mother asked. Cello was trying to guess, but her mother got really impatience and said, "France, Cello." "Great a Year in France," Cello thought. Cello don't really like to go to France, to her it gonna be like a year until they're out of France. When it was a another day of school, her best friend, Vic which had a crush on her, asked her "Hey Cello, I was wondering what are you doing for summer break?" "I'm going to France," she replied. "I'm also wondering, um.. can I come with you to France?" "Sure I ask my mom when I'm home," she said. When she returned home, she asked her mom, her mom said "Sure, and here." Her mom Cello two French translation book. The next day Cello gave Vic the second French translation book. It was summer break, Cello's Mom, Vic, and Cello was at the airport, when they were in the airplane, Vic ask Cello, "hey Cello, I always pronounce your as Cel-lo, but how do you really pronounce it." "Ch-el-lo" she answered. When they arrived, a French lady said to them, "Bonjour et Bienvenue." Cello's mother told Cello and Vic, that the lady said "Hello and Welcome."
